AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATER.—The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams is drawing near a close, and this is the last night of the To-morbeautiful drama "All Hallow Eve." row is the benefit night of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, and we doubt not their friends will take advantage of the occasion to give substantial evidence of their appreciation CANTERBURY .- "Cherry Belle" is growing in popularity at the Canterbury, while Miss Laura Le Clare gives general satisfaction by her rendition of popular ballads. The usual variety of song, dance, burlesque, etc., this FORD'S THEATER.-At Ford's Theater this evening Shakspeare's immortal tragedy of "Macbeth" will be enacted. Junius Brutus Booth will personate the King of Scotland, and those who have witnessed his acting need no assurance that it will be done creditably. Miss Alice Gray appears as Lady Macbeth.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN SERENADED BY THE LOYAL MARYLANDERS - SPEECH OF THE PRESIDENT.—In anticipation of a serenade to President Lincoln by the loyal Marylanders, a large crowd assembled in front of the White House last evening at an early hour. At halfpast seven o'clock the loyal Maryland men of East Washington assembled at the Navy Yardand shortly afterwards they moved in procession, headed by an excellent military band, to Ninth street, where they were joined by a delegation of the Lincoln and Johnson Club. From Ninth street they moved to the President's House, and entered the enclosures by the west gate. After arriving in front of the White House the band played several patriotic airs, upon the conclusion of which loud and repeated calls were made for the President, when Mr. Lincoln made his appearance at one of the second story windows of the Mansion, and said: Friends and Fellow-Citizens: I am notified that this is a compliment paid me by the loyal Marylanders resident in this District. I infer that the adoption of the new constitution for the State furnishes the eccasion, and that in your view the extirpation of slavery constitutes the chief merit of the new constitution. [Applause.] Most heartily de I congratulate you and Maryland, and the nation and the world, upon the event I regret that it did not occur two years sooner, which, I am sure, would have saved to the nation more money than would have met all the private loss incident to the measure. [Cheers.] But it has come at last, and I sincerely hope its friends may fully realize all their anticipations of good from it, and that its opponents may, by its effects, be agreeably and profitably disap-

A word upon another subject. Something said by the Secretary of State in his recent speech at Auburn, has been construed by some into a threat that if I should be beaten at the election I will, between then and the end of my constitutional term, do what I may be able to ruin the government. [Cries of no danger-we don't believe it.] Others regard the fact that the Chicago Convention adjourned not sine die, but to meet again if called to do so by a particular individual, as the intimation of a purpose that if their nominee shall be elected he will at once seize control of the Government. I hope the good people will permit themselves to suffer no uneasiness on either point. [Hearty cheers and cries of "that'sso." I am struggling to maintain the Government, not to overthrow it. I am struggling especially to prevent others from overthrowing it. [Cries of "That's so !".] I therefore say that, if I shall live, I shall remain President until the 4th of next March, [tremendous cheering,] and that whoever shall be constitutionally elected therefor in November shall be duly installed as President on the 4th of March; and that in the interval I shall do my utmost that whoever is to hold the helm for the next voyage shall start with the best possible chance of saving the ship. [Prolonged cheers].

This is due to the people, both on principle and under the Constitution. Their will, constitutionally expressed, is the ultimate law for all. If they should deliberately resolve to have immediate peace, even at the loss of their country and their liberties, I know not the power or the right to resist them. It is their own business, and they must do as they please with their own. I believe, however, they are still resolved to preserve their country and their liberties, and in this, in office or out of it, Jam resolved to stand by them. [Applause.]

I may add that, in this purpose to save the country and its liberties, no classes of people seem so nearly unanimous as the soldiers in the field and the sailors affoat. [Immense applause.] Do they not have the hardest of it? Who should quail while they do not! God bless the soldiers and sailors, with all their brave commanders.

As soon as the President had concluded his remarks, loud and prolonged cheers were given. Some one in the crowd then proposed three cheers for the "free land and broken chains of Maryland," which were given with a hearty good will; after which the crowd again fell into line, and marched to the residence of Secretary Seward, where loud calls were made for that gentleman, but he was not at home. Cheers were given for the "Secretary of State," and the procession then moved to the house of Secretary Fessenden, of the Treasury. Calls were made for Mr. Fessenden, when Mr. J. L. Henshaw appeared upon the steps of Mr. Fessenden's residence, and said: "He was authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to say that he was deeply sensible of the compliment paid him in their visit, but he was too nnwell to appear in the open air; he, therefore, hoped they would excuse him."
Three cheers were given for Mr. Fessenden.
Three cheers were also given for the downfall of gold, and three more added for green-

The crowd marched down Fifteenth street to the avenue, gradually thinning, and the East Washington boys, with their band, proceeded homeward, eminently pleased with the success of their patriotic demonstration.

GHARGE OF GRAND LARCENY.-Yesterday officer Leade, of the Third Ward, arrested Jno. Murkling upon a charge of stealing six bead bags from Francis Dallay, an Indian, who was offering them for sale in the Northern Market. The case was taken before Justice Miller, when it appeared that Murkling is a butcher in the market, and when the Indian was showing his fancy goods Murkling took the six bags from the Indian's basket. The Indian asked for them, and Murkling refused to give them up. The Indian insisted, and Murkling raised his cleaver and threatened to split him if he did not leave. The Indian told him to split away, as he would have his goods. Murkling left the market to go to a restaurant and the Indian followed him, when Murkling attempted to knock him down. The Indian followed to the restaurant, where Murkling offered to treat and make up, but the Indian refused. Murkling was sent to jail for court in the larceny case, and was fined $10 for disorderly conduct. The Indian having said he was going to leave the city, the Justice committed him as a witness.

UNION LEAGUE MEETING LAST EVENING .-The president announced that Mr. Freeman, of Maine, who was to have spoken before the club that evening, was unable to fulfil the engagement, but would address them at some future meeting. Also, that the Hon. Wm. A. Cook would speak before the club Monday

The committees of the various hospital associations and other Union organizations were invited to meet with the marshals in the club room this evening, at 7 o'clock, to make arrangements for the torchlight procession Friday evening.

The meeting then adjourned to take part in the demonstration at the White House in honor of the adoption by Maryland of the free Constitution. There will be no public meeting at the headquarters this evening.

IMPROVING THE V. R. C.—The neat and cleanly appearance of the videttes upon the avenue is highly creditable to the Provisional Cavalry, from which they are detailed. This corps, under the command of Captain Hill, is composed of cavalrymen in the Veteran Re-serve Corps, and number about 150 rps, and number about 150 men. duties they perform are highly important, beside that of videttes upon the avenue. Recently, company A, Capt. McCamly, and company H, Capt. West, of the 9th regiment V. R.

C, have been mounted, and will act as cavalry. These are decided improvements, adding greatly to the efficiency of the well-known brigade to which they belong. Second Ward Station Cases.—J. Gaines, larceny; dismissed. Charlotte Tilman, disorderly; do. Philip Spriggs, throwing stones; $2. Samuel Ireland, violating city ordinance; dismissed. Kate Wolf, drunk; workhouse. A. J. Beckey, drunk; 85. Samuel Herbert, drunk

Chas Mason, suspicious character; for hearing. Jennie Hopkins, in male attire; $20. Lizzle Herbert, disorderiy; $3.

SEVENTH WARD LINCOLN AND JOHNSON ULUB.—This club held an adjourned meeting last evening at Island Hall, Justice Boswell last evening at Island Hall. Justice Boswell in the chair, and various committees charged with making preparations for joining in the torch-light procession to-morrow evening made reports. A number came forward and added their names to the roll, Mr. C. Brewer was elected vice president. An invitation was extended to the soldiers at Armory Square to join the club in the procession, and the club adjourned to to-night.

CHARGE OF GRAND LARCENY. - Patrick Read, a watchman at the Eastern Branch corral, was arrested by officer Mullov, of the second precinct, upon a charge of stealing $50 from Wm. Flannagan. The parties board at the same house and Flannagan went out of his room and left his key in his trunk lock. After his return he discovered his loss. His suspicion rested on the prisoner. After a hearing of the evidence Justice Thompson held Read to bail for court.

THE WRONG SUIT .- Last night there was a ball at Columbia Gardens, and Jennie Hopkins, a young girl, of Hooker's Division, put on a suit of male apparel, and went there to enjoy the dance. A man applied to policeman Watts, and requested that she be arrested. She was locked up in the Second Ward Station. This morning she was brought out for trial before Justice Miller. She was ordered to pay a fine

DR. RAND'S SPECIFIC.

The oldest and most reliable medicine for th cure of Spermatorhoa, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power, &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success Dr. Rand's Specific is exhibited in the form of pills, made up sutirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The Specific of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medical virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired generative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.
